Born in France around 1591, Valentin de Boulogne's early life remains relatively obscure, but it's believed he received initial artistic training in Paris before traveling to Italy around 1610. His move was motivated by a desire to immerse himself in the vibrant artistic scene of Rome, where Baroque art was flourishing under the influence of Caravaggio and his followers.

In Rome, Valentin joined a community of artists inspired by Caravaggio's dramatic chiaroscuro and naturalistic figures. His exposure to local traditions, alongside his French cultural background, created a fertile ground for experimentation.
