The Color Line

Coined by W.E.B. Du Bois in his 1903 book The Souls of Black Folk, the Color Line refers to the racial segregation and discrimination that defined American society, particularly in the post-Reconstruction era. It encapsulates the systemic barriers that kept African Americans and other marginalized groups separate from white populations, affecting every aspect of life—from education and employment to voting rights and social interactions.

The Iron Curtain

Termed by Winston Churchill in 1946 during a speech in Fulton, Missouri, the Iron Curtain epitomizes the ideological and physical boundary between Western democracies and Eastern communist states during the Cold War. It symbolized the division of Europe into West and East, with profound implications for geopolitics, security, and cultural exchange.
